A NEW OFFICER.

The Committee on Accounts recommended that the Committee on Ordinances and the City Solicitor be instructed to examine all ordinances in relation to licenses and report all changes necessary for prompt collection; also that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the different Boards with a view to appointing an anditor to audit all the accounts of the city's boards and officers. Both of these recommendations were adopted. In the First there was considerable opposition to this evident intention to create a new office. The reason for it is that the Committee on Accounts has undertaken to do so much work that it finds itself in a hole and wants some one employed to do the work for it. Mr. Wilson, of the First, and Messrs. Ellingham and Maxwell, of the Second, were named as the committee.

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

The annual message of the Mayor was read in both branches, and ordered filed. There are the ear-marks of two or three clever politicians about it. The full text is as follows.

To the Council of the City of Wheeling:

GENTLEMAN:—In compliance with section 5 of an ordinance in relation to the "Mayor of the City of Wheeling." I do hereby submit the following communication, and trust that your honorable body will earnestly consider the various suggestions and take such action as you may deem necessary.

The taxpayers may congratulate themselves that the city credit has been maintained at home and abroad, yet the financial system of the city government is hardly in such shape as a good business man would adopt in his own affairs. You should fully consider if it could not be arranged so that the various departments would maintain a common freasury, yet not interforing with the appropriations or the innes of the said superfuencia. In the tax payers yearly, the other constraints are the present system one determined may have a larger surplus upon which but 3 per cent in terest is received, whilst other departments are paying a per cent interest on outstanding orders. THE CITY WATER BOARD.

BOARD OF FUBLIC WORKS.

This Board has made many substantial improvements in the city yet from all quarters our people are clamoring for street paying, soworage, curring, etc. Care should be taken to make any propriations that are lightly to the continuous propriations that are lightly our especial attention to graving domaind for the crection of a substantial stone bridge on Main street, over Wheelman etc. The present intenpearsy structure is entirely limdequate to the necessities, and is entirely limdequate to the necessities, and is able to be taken away by the first freshet. You should consider and submit a han ordinance to the people without delay, in order that a bridge may be greeted during the coming summer.

the people without delay, in order that a bridge may be creeted during the coming summer.

This department has been well-handled, expecially as regards the Yre Bepartment. All bills have been carefully audied by the Beard and reported to Your honors hed the last year and reported to Your honors hed field to the past year and the past years he increase of members of the last years and the increase of members of the last year, and the last year and the increase of members of the long to the last year, and the last with the last year, and suggest that you increase the lives and property of about 40,000 finabilitants. I will therefore, new my recommendation of last year, and suggest that you increase the police force by adding ten men to the present force, two of whem should be detailed for detective service. Allsying one man for each ward for right duty, and one mas at head quarters. This force would be less than defective service. Allsying one man for each ward for right duty, and one mas at head quarters. This force would be less than desired the last year as regards a partor wagon, which was sat down upon by the Police Board. Should Council act upon this suggestion, the disgrapeful seens that are often witnessed upon our streets, such as the dragating along, or hauling upon a wheelbarrow, of drunken men and wasned on the way to the lockup, using languages so foul that it will not hear repetition. To all this your wives and children, who happen to be upon the streets, are obliged to submit.

A communication was received from the Board of Gas Trustees, in which they made reply to a resolution passed by Conneil about one month ago regarding the low pressure and poor quality of gas furnished to the citizens of the Seventh ward. The Board stated that the trouble was owing to condensation forming in the service pipes on account of frest, something over which the Trustees have been control. If the consumers world grow the service pipes on account of frest, something over which the Trustees have been control. If the consumers world grow the control of the control of the consumers world grow the control of the
